A comprehensive guide to designing homeschool curriculum from one of the country's foremost homeschooling experts, now revised and updated, Homeschooling can be a tremendous gift to your children: a personalized educational experience tailored to each kid's interests, abilities, and learning styles. But what to teach, and when and how, especially for first-time homeschoolers, the prospect of tackling an annual curriculum can be daunting. In Home Learning, year-by-year, Rebecca Rupp presents comprehensive plans from preschool through high school, covering integral subjects for each grade with lists of topics commonly presented at each level, recommended resource and reading lists, and suggestions for creative alternative options and approaches. Included along with all the educational basics are techniques and resources for teaching everything from philosophy to engineering, as well as suggestions for dealing with such sensitive topics as sex education. Now revised throughout with all new updates featuring the most effective and up-to-date methods and reading guides to homeschool your child at all ages, Home Learning, year by year, continues to be the definitive book for the homeschooling parent.

What it really means to read closely. Call it close reading. Call it deep reading. Call it analytic reading. Call it what you like. The point is it's a level of understanding that students of any age can achieve with the right kind of instruction. In Rigorous Reading, Nancy Frey and Doug Fisher articulate an instructional plan so clearly and so squarely built on research that teachers, schools, and districts need look no further. Purpose, modeling, close, scaffolded, reading instruction, collaborative conversations, an independent reading staircase, performance.

This book provides an overview of current K-12 courses and programs offered in the United States as correspondence study or via such electronic delivery systems as satellite cable or the Internet. The directory includes over 6,000 courses offered by 154 institutions or distance learning consortium members. Following an introduction that describes existing practices and delivery methods, the directory offers three indexes: subject index of courses offered by level, course level index, geographic index. All information was supplied by the institutions. Entries include current contact information, a description of the institution and the courses offered, grade level and admission information, tuition and fee information, enrollment periods, delivery information, equipment requirements, credit and grading information, library services, and accreditation.

Traces the history of connections between Holocaust memory and the discourse of anti-racism. The Holocaust is often invoked as a benchmark for talking about human rights abuses from slavery and apartheid to colonialism ethnic cleansing and genocide western educators and politicians draw seemingly obvious lessons of tolerance and anti racism from the nazi past and their work rests on the implicit assumption that holocaust education and commemoration will expose the dangers of prejudice and promote peaceful coexistence holocaust memory and racism in the postwar world edited by shirli gilbert and avril alba challenges the notion that there is an unproblematic connection between holocaust memory and the discourse of anti racism through diverse case studies this volume historicizes how the holocaust has shaped engagement with racism from the 1940s until the present demonstrating that contemporary assumptions are neither obvious nor inevitable holocaust memory and racism in the postwar world is divided into four sections the first section focuses on encounters between nazism and racism during and immediately after world war ii demonstrating not only that racist discourses and politics persisted in the postwar period but also perhaps more importantly that few people identified links with nazi racism the second section explores jewish motivations for participating in anti racist activism and the varying memories of the holocaust that informed their work the third section historicizes the manifold ways in which the holocaust has been conceptualized in literary settings exploring efforts to connect the holocaust and racism in geographically culturally and temporally diverse settings the final section brings the volume into the present focusing on contemporary political causes for which the holocaust provides a benchmark for racial equality and justice together the contributions delineate the complex history of holocaust memory recognize its contingency and provide a foundation from which to evaluate its moral legitimacy and political and social effectiveness holocaust memory and racism in the postwar world is intended for students and scholars of holocaust and genocide studies professionals working in museums and heritage organizations and anyone interested in building on their knowledge of the holocaust and the discourse of racism
