cannon focuses on the secret knowledge that has been passed from generation to generation after the extraterrestrials left earth for centuries et wisdom has been protected by the few who belonged to the secret wars have been fought and terrible injustices have been committed in attempts to gain access to this knowledge now it is no longer reserved strictly for oracles in temples it is returning to our time and is now available for all to learn many of us lived previous lives as keepers of sacred knowledge that was taught in the ancient mystery schools much of this knowledge was lost through time due to disasters and destruction or death the knowledge was reserved for a select few who devoted their lives to understanding and teaching it the most important aspect of our existence is that every living thing is subject to two forms of evolutionary trends one is physical which deals with the investigation of nature by means of science and technology the other is spiritual which requires an investigation of nature through perceptive power commonly achieved through meditative practices in spiritual wisdom author ramesh malhotra explores the evolution of the attainment of spiritual knowledge and inner tranquility and peace through practical examples of how to apply these spiritual principles to everyday life he provides insight into the four tenets of eternal wisdom mythological wisdom inspirational wisdom transcendental wisdom and absolute truth he provides an overview of the history of spiritual wisdom the elements of lower and higher knowledge and the process of self revitalization providing an in depth investigation and discussion of the spiritual knowledge and guidance found within the bhagavad gita malhotra encourages further exploration of spiritual wisdom and enlightenment in order to bring peace tranquility and happiness to every life journey the yolngu indigenous people in the northeast arnhem land of australia respond to neo colonial challenges by continuing to affirm their political autonomy and transmit yolngu law which are ways of knowing and being with the younger generation they deal with non indigenous institutions through participation of bodies language things images of movement and notions of mutual care feelings and accountability this book explores the yolngu relational ontology and epistemology in the context of everyday practices ritual ceremonies bicultural education vernacular christianity and the production of popular music exploring the social complexities of the frieda river project in papua new guinea this book tells the story of local stakeholder strategies on the eve of industrial development largely from the perspective of the paiyamo one of the project s so called impact communities engaging ideas of knowledge belief and personhood it explains how fifty years of encounters with exploration companies shaped the paiyamo s aspirations made them revisit and re examine their past and develop new strategies to move towards a better more prosperous future please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 the extraterrestrials developed life on earth they lived with the savages and taught them basic skills so they would be able to survive and develop a civilization they did not die until they wanted to so they were treated as gods 2 the building of temples and stone circles was a marker for the passing of the seasons and the positions of certain important stars and planets the courses were plotted in relation to the lintels and stones this was a highly advanced science by the time of atlantis 3 the egyptians used the stars and the planets to track their seasons and this developed into a more sophisticated system of astronomy the structures were also visible from space and served as markers for spaceships orbiting the planet 4 there were many different types of people in the temple some of whom were angry because they didn't want to be there they said they were from neighboring galaxies or neighboring stars we are multistoried each story contributing to who we are the storied self a number of undeveloped stories are identified in this book this includes the hidden story before language others include the lazy story the trauma story the messy story the body story the problem story and the dark story the god story brings the spiritual realm into focus the challenge in spiritual care is to help people find an integrative deep story which can be re authored with new and exciting possibilities this book draws on the insights of narrative gerontology for a natural engaging and more comprehensive spiritual care of the aged one that results in psychological and spiritual growth this is a unique idea which will challenge the way we think about pastoral care the language of emotions the case of dalabon australia is the first extensive study of the linguistic encoding of emotions in an australian language and further in an endangered non european language based on first hand data collected using innovative methods the monograph describes and analyzes how dalabon speakers express emotions using interjections prosody evaluative morphology and the words they use to describe and discuss emotions like many languages dalabon makes broad use of body part words in descriptions of emotions the volume analyzes the figurative functions of these body part words as well as their non figurative functions correlations between linguistic features and cultural patterns are systematically questioned beyond australians and linguists working on emotions the book will be of interest to anthropological linguists cognitive linguists or linguists working on discourse and communication for instance it is accessible also to non linguists with an interest in language in particular anthropologists and psychologists
