this work on apologetics examines the classical arguments for the existence of god ontological and thomistic arguments discusses the philosophical issues that confront contemporary apologetics and provides an incisive critique of presuppositional apologetics this book affirms relationship as the shared human elemental pursuit and proposes relationship as the transformative space wonderfully the author asserts it is god s intention to fulfill this intrinsic human desire in the present in all of us and universally this desire is an often inarticulate innate desire and pursuit to enjoy and reflect the divine image in which every human being was created in this book this pursuit is referred to as proleptic spiritual transformation prōst that is this book demonstrates that what is too often relegated to eternity is available now relationship is the transformative space considers god's heart in relationship and its implication toward human spirituality and how this intent has been interrupted and restored god is actively interested in the recovery of a fully expressed image in humanity this volume is a collection of selected readings that are of continuing significance for christian apologetics dr bush has written a general introduction to the field of apologetics and an introduction to each apologist cited and the work or works from which selections have been drawn a brief bibliography is also given for each writer christians have always been called on to defend their beliefs certainly no less today than at any other time in history in this book the outstanding apologists of previous centuries become models both in the content of their writing and in their methodology for christians today all those who love the lord and his church and are concerned that many be made aware of the reasonableness of the christian faith will find this book enlightening and exciting
